

NOVEMBER

workbook 2022

The Funeral.

The Cremation.

What needs to die?

Yep, I'm starting there darlings.

Eclipse season - death season - Scorpio season.

We dive into the underworld, we prune, release, purge, cut away what's dead and what no longer serves us.

Scorpio invokes transformation, how we use our resources, how connected we are to our own magic, how willing we are to work with our shadow.

Death season invites us to BE shadow walkers, and this November the energy is amplified!

It's a pretty fated month ladies, lots will be revealed, lots can be repaired!

Scorpio, fixed Water sign, ruler Pluto, traditional ruler Mars, is emotional, psychic, hidden and destructive. This is the season of transmutation & transformation, a time of healing and rebirth, or a time of destruction & crisis. Scorpio energy doesn't like to let go easily, every memory, and pain is stuck in the cells, hello fixed water! So it's imperative to actively choose to let go of drama, let go of the old hurts, let go of staying stuck and rise like a phoenix! Especially considering the South Node is in Scorpio, holding patterns are real, yet we are on the tether of breaking new ground! Like snakes shedding their skins, we are transforming!

We are still traversing heavy fixed energy, so check out your chart for fixed planets, angles, chiron or nodes. They have all been getting a huge workout! And by workout I mean, they are getting annihilated! Hahaha

Fixed energy builds, it resists, it holds. It's the anchor, the stabiliser. Fixed energy works, digs in, shows up. It can be rigid, unchanging and is not easily swayed. This season, and year, especially for heavy fixed charts, there is a powerful invitation to confront ourselves with where we are being too fixed, too rigid, too inflexible and too demanding. We must challenge ourselves, adjust, change our minds, pivot and bloody let go of the way we think something is or should be, and surrender.

I'm calling this the funeral because I want us to dig in and really look at where fear is still running the show!

Where fear still leads the way.

I think there is such a big fear around death but is it fear or denial?

To live is to die, many deaths over and over.

If we are not dying, we are not evolving!

I'm going to bring up some other things around the Funeral concept in the teaching video.

We only have one month a year to truly work with this Scorpio energy, so let's go there, together.

Let's look at Scorpio in your chart,

What house does it rule?

The house Scorpio rules for you adds another layer, another theme, another expression of where and how this energy plays out.

Do you have any planets in Scorpio?

Where is Pluto in your own chart?

The house Pluto is in gives awareness to the theme of your life where there is constant death and rebirth. Where the shedding is. Where you can't run from the truth because it always finds you. It's the house where transformation occurs and where we must surrender to the constant change. The house theme where we may want control, power and become obsessed. The house shows us where we must descend to the underworld before we can rise.

Also check the house Mars resides in as he also gives similar Scorpionic themes to that house, Mars is the traditional ruler of Scorpio so we must pay attention to him too!

We've just come out of our Mars month so hopefully you got to know him better!

When the Sun is in Scorpio it really begs of us to plunge and plummet, no wafting on the surface. Go into yourself, explore the darkest terrain.

Here are some more questions to ponder and work with this month.

What drives you?

What do you desire, truly?

What are you passionate about?

Where do you need or can not give up control?

Are obsessions ruling your life?

What do you fear?

Do you have volcanic anger within you?

How do you harness your own power?

Are you overpowering, or do you allow people to overpower you?

Do you feel powerful?

What's your creative outlet?

What's buried, are you brave enough to dig it up?

What needs illuminating? (you can of course pay attention to what IS illuminated in Scorpio season) Take note and watch all that surfaces for you from the underworld.

What needs to be destroyed or reckoned with in your world?

Can you surrender to change?

Pay attention to any inner conflict and struggles.

Scorpio season invites soul growth!

My Pluto quote is, “Face the truth or the truth will destroy you”

So I am encouraging us all to face some truths.

This may be in acceptance of our own shadows, maybe someone else's truth we don't want to hear.. The list goes on.

What does truth mean for you?

Do you run from it only to find it shows up in every situation you encounter?

And in true Pluto/Scorpio mood we can look at chaos, drama and hardships too!

Are you addicted to chaos/drama and trauma?

Are you addicted to hardship?

Are you addicted to your wounds, the stories?

Are you addicted to the constant processing and hopping from one spiritual teacher to the next?

This is just an avoidance strategy. If we keep going to all the workshops, readers, retreats ect ect ect, then we never have to ACTUALLY look at ourselves and DO THE WORK right?

We bypass the integration.

Being honest with ourselves around these areas helps to free us, liberate and heal us.

I can't help but share these same points every year in Scorpio season from the Holistic psychologist.

Here is what she said,

Signs you have an addiction to chaos,

- 1 - You feel bored, unloved or confused if your partner is not passionately arguing with you.
- 2 - You find yourself consistently being pulled into family disputes or being the mediator.
- 3 - Your time spent on social media is primarily spent arguing or attempting to prove people wrong.
- 4 - Your relationships are primarily spaces to vent, complain, or to re-live emotional experiences.
- 5 - You seek watching/consuming conflict or fear

Gahhh... Right!

How good are these!

I see number 4 ALOT!!!

I also love 2 & 3!

Can you relate to any or all of these?

Or have you been able to see these in yourself and heal, no longer playing that role?

I feel that this takes us to yet another layer in claiming back self responsibility, and truly looking at the addiction to drama, or even the addiction to hardship.

You know, "it has to be hard, life is hard!" Well it actually doesn't and it isn't, and I love these simple 5 lines that can really shine light on if chaos and drama just feels comfortable for you or not.

Dive deep darlings!

There are LOADS of juicy and karmic dates this month darlings, all the water, lilith activations, lots of Jupiter & Neptune activations plus Venus, Mercury & the Sun all moving into Sag too, it's a big month!!

Of course I will share LOTS in our video for the month!

11.11 Gateway Information

Always a yummy day where I devote myself to ceremony and sacredness, although our whole life is a sacred ceremony right, but you know I love these master number days.

And 11.11 is a good one.

Firstly because it actually looks like a doorway, a gateway, a portal to another dimension, which it is.

11.11 energy is next dimensional in frequency.

I like to stand in between doorways, because I am in between 2 rooms, 2 worlds. Often I sit, like right now, and channel in front of an open door as it allows consciousness to stream straight through for me.

Sitting in between 2 trees on 11.11 day is magic too, be very sure to find some time to get out in nature.

11.11 energy asks you to pay attention to the synchronicities and messages at play, when you see 11.11, 1.11 on a clock I believe it is a confirmation of what you are thinking IN that moment. Are you in alignment? Are your thoughts running you? It's an illumination from the Universe, a confirmation, all Master numbers are!

11 energy is also a sign of independence, you standing alongside your fellow human, or alongside the Universe, the Great divine.

Signalling and reminding you that you and you alone really are the key to unlock your future self, your potential and your infinite capabilities. We stand alone, but we stand all-one!

The 11.11 the sky weather has the Moon hitting Mars retrograde, watch those short fuses, the words you speak, your emotional reactions & responses! Might be a trigger day! There is a magic grand water trine building and Venus is in harmony with Lilith but the Sun is square Saturn. So a mixed bag of energies darlings.

Our 11.11 day is a numerology 10 day, so it is definitely signalling some sort of new beginning!

Be the pioneer in your own life!

There are many ways to tune into, receive & activate this 11.11 energy. From taking the liquid crystal Garnet, (which is the 11.11 gateway crystal) to walking a labyrinth, to chanting mantras, writing, reading, channelling, just allowing whatever needs to come through you to do so. Lay on the Earth to hear your own frequencies be played back to you.. Drink tea, pull cards, meditate with crystals.. Do whatever feels good for you. Trust you!

Just be intentional with your day.

Feel free to share in the group your 11.11 day!

So witches, get your broomsticks out, dive into the abyss with me and let's see what unfolds and rises UP this death season.

May we burn down what no longer serves and build our future on its ruins!

Rebirth- ready or not!

Bless, bless, bless,
Tiarnie XO
